

FEDERAL FINANCIAL AID VIRTUAL BOOTCAMP

These sessions are geared toward students, parents, and college/career professionals, and will provide an opportunity for participants to ask questions.

The Bootcamp will be held on:

Wednesday
October
23
2024

AGENDA

Getting Started with a StudentAid.gov Account

This session is geared towards first-time contributors (student/parent) needing to create a new StudentAid.gov account, while learning how to access your most important financial aid information.

1:00 pm ET

Ways to Pay for college

This webinar is for potential college students and their families who are looking to understand the cost of attendance for college and ways to pay for it. Participants will explore the federal financial aid process, programs, tools, and various funding sources.

3:00 pm ET

FAFSA® Resources and How to Avoid Financial Aid Scams

This session is geared towards individuals who are looking for FAFSA® resources that can assist them during the financial aid process. During this session, viewers will be given an overview of Federal Student Aid's online tools, best practices, and resources while learning how to avoid financial aid scams.

6:00 pm ET

Registration: <https://forms.office.com/g/ZJmVBarb60>